Snuggle Up and Read begins today!!! More info to come!
*Snuggle-Up was supposed to begin last week but with the short week and many students away, we decided to postpone until this week. Sorry for the confusion.

Friday: Mrs. Cyr away today.
Hot Lunch: pizza

Please Note...

Jolly Phonics: What will be in the Mystery Box this week? (a hat). Does your name have an "Hh"? The action for "Hh" is hopping, being out of breath and saying "h-h-h". Please remember to send in a word that you and your child come up with that begins with our letter of the week; we would really like each child to contribute to our Letter of the Week list. Thank you!

Advent Wreaths: your little one will work on an advent wreath this week. The Season of Advent begins this Sunday Dec. 3rd.

E is for elephants! Did you know that African Elephants are being hunted just for their ivory tusks? Without urgent action to save their species, elephants could be gone from the wild within a single generation! In the coming weeks, we are going to investigate what we already know about elephants and what we would like to know more about elephants. We will think of ways we might be able to help join the fight to "Save the Elephants!"

Parent-Teacher Interviews: We look forward to seeing you this Tuesday & Wednesday! Because our time is short (10 minutes), you may wish to think of any questions you have or any specific topics that you would like to discuss. Of course, if we need more time, we are always available to chat at a later date as well. We don't mean to be rude, however we will set a timer during our meeting in order to avoid long delays. The note stating your meeting time is enclosed with your child's progress report.

Wednesday is Jersey Day at St. James the Greater! Children are asked to wear their favourite sports shirt/t-shirt/jersey - hockey, soccer, t-ball, gymnastics... you name it! We do have extra shirts if your child does not have one.

Extra Clothing Bag: Thank you for returning your child's extra clothing bag.

We are very proud of the children for trying their best to get dressed independently for the outdoors and for following the steps - snowpants first and mittens last. Keep up the great work, girls and boys!

Please send in empty wooden clementine crates for our upcoming Nativity Scene project.

Have a happy week, everyone!
Love, Mrs. Cyr & Mrs. McParland
