

Peek at the Week

December 4 - 8

Monday: Advent Candle lighting in our classroom
Jolly Phonics "Rr" is for, Ryan, Raelynn and Rudolph...
Tuesday: Advent Prayer Service for the whole school
Thursday:
Friday: Rest-time items to go home for washing
Thank you to everyone who brought in tissues for the class!

ClassDojo

Our class Dojo is up and running! We enjoy sharing what your children are up to in class. Please let us know if you need help signing up. 😊

Winter Clothing: Thank you for the labelled mittens, boots, snow pants, jackets, neck warmers and hats. We have accumulated some items of indoor and outdoor clothing that are not labelled. Please ensure EVERYTHING is labelled. A reminder that mittens are encouraged (gloves are okay if your child can put them on themselves). Extra socks and mitts are also a good idea. Thank you everyone!

Have a rockin' week everyone!
Love, Ms. Rorkery, Mrs. Rordan and Ms. Rarvin

First Sunday of Advent

Advent Wreaths: The children will be coming home with their Advent Wreaths this week. Please place it in a special spot and help your child by reading the prayers provided on the purple sheet. The first candle can be "lit".

We are excited to welcome Baby Gabby to our class! Jenn Bradley will be coming to teach the Roots of Empathy program. There was an information sheet sent home last Friday. There will be also be a photo permission form sent home as well.

Jolly Phonics: For the letter "Rr", we meet a dog named Rags who really wants his blanket back. To get it, he says, "r-r-r-r-r" as he shakes his head back and forth.
