

Peek at the Week: February 5th, 2018

- Monday: Jolly Phonics "Oo"
Thursday: Home-Reading books due (classroom, library and green reading log)
Friday: Weekly Walk
Yoga (wear your comfyies please)
*Snuggle Up and Read classroom, library and green reading logs go home
*Rest Time bags and blankies go home to be washed.

Jolly Phonics: For the letter "Oo", the action is pretending to turn a light off and on as we say, "o-o-o" (short vowel 'o' sound like 'on'). Thank you for sending in a word for our letter of the week list.

*Snuggle Up Books and Rest Time Bags & Blankies will go home this Friday. Sorry for the delay.

Valentine Cards: Please note that there are 15 children in our class. Next week after our VERY BUSY February 14th (the first day of Lent, Valentine's Day AND the 100th Day of School!!!!), we will walk to the mailbox to mail Macayla's Valentine cards to her.

Cold and Flu Season is most definitely here. We will review proper hand-washing and the importance of coughing into our elbows. Let's hope that our little ones and big ones stay healthy!

Have an outstanding week, everyone!

Love, Mrs. Oeward
