Greta's Family: please keep Greta and her family in your prayers; Greta's Grandfather passed away. When Greta returns to school next week, we will light a candle for her Grandpa.

Jolly Phonics: The action for Ee is pretending to crack an egg using both hands while saying, "e-e-e-e" (short 'e' like the sound in egg, elephant...). What was in the Mystery Box today? (an egg). Does your name have an 'e' in it? (Senior children, please look at your first and last names). Bravo or C'est dommage? Thank you as always for sending in a list of words that begin with our letter of the week.

Speaking of "Ee": when printing a lower case 'e', it is helpful to say, "Across, up and around". This week in Room 113, we will count the TOTAL number of 'e's in our all of our names. We wonder how many there are? Mrs. Seward will bring in some fresh eggs from her five chickens for anyone who wishes to help cook and eat some eggs (this will probably be in Friday); no pressure of course for any of our little ones who do not like eggs (we always remind them to simply say, "No thank you"). We will also enjoy reading Dr. Seuss' "Green Eggs and Ham". Do YOU like green eggs and ham?

We will be looking for different shapes in our snacks and lunches this week - specifically circles, squares, rectangles and triangles, for example: rectangular cheese slices, Nacho triangles, circular cookies etc! Kindly have your child show the teacher their shapes as we do not want to miss any.

We are really looking excited about our "Forest Bureau of Investigation" program at Foley Mountain on Thursday. The bus will depart from St. James at 9:15 a.m. Supervisors are asked to wait in the school foyer; at 8:50 a.m., children can start coming into the classroom so we can take attendance. Everyone will use the school washroom before boarding the bus. It is essential that your child has water, healthy snacks, a healthy lunch and extra clothing in their school bag. Please pay attention to the weather forecast so that your child will be dressed appropriately - layering clothes is always a good idea and kindly ensure that their socks are tucked into their pants to prevent tics. As an added precaution, parents are asked to check their child at the end of the day for tics; as well, clothes worn should be placed in the washing machine and dryer Thursday evening.

Thank You! THANK YOU MISS ROSS!!!... On behalf of the children, families and myself (Mrs. Seward), I would like to extend a BIG THANK YOU to Miss Ross!!! She has worked so hard to ensure that the routines and rules of our classroom were maintained, and she did this in a very professional, kind and loving manner.

Have an excellent week everyone!!!!

Love, Miss Ross and Mrs. Seward
