

Peek at the Week: December 4th, 2017

This is the First Week of Advent

Monday: Jolly Phonics "Mm"

Tuesday: Advent Prayer Service for the whole school

Wednesday: Library books due back

Please Note...

Mr. Smith is glad to be back this week!

Jolly Phonics... "Mm" is for Marianna and Michael. For the letter M we rub our tummies like we are eating tasty food and we say "m-m-m-m-m". Please continue to send in the word lists that you and your child come up with that begins with our letter of the week; we would really like each child to contribute to our Letter of the Week list. If you are sending in more than one word, kindly have your child circle their favourite - remember to ensure that his/her name is on the paper.

Advent Wreaths... The children came home with their Advent Wreaths on Friday. Please ensure that you either tape it or staple it together and place it in a special spot. The first candle can be "lit".

Parent-Teacher Interviews... It was great getting to meet with and chat with so many parents about your childrens' progress so far this year. Although this was the formal interview for the first progress report, if anyone wants to meet or talk on the phone anytime, we can make ourselves available. If you weren't able to meet last Thursday, we will be contacting you to set up a time we can meet or chat on the phone.

Have a great week, everyone!

Mr. Smith and Mrs. Sprague
