

Peek at the Week: October 2, 2017

This Week in Room 160...

Tuesday: Jolly Phonics letter "Ii"

Wednesday: Library books due

Friday: Kindergarten teachers away in the morning for a Kinder Meeting

School photo orders due

Mass at St. Francis Church - all Kinders remain at school (we will bring the SKs to Church in the Spring).

Rest time bags, towels and stuffies go home for laundering

Please note...

This is Fire Prevention and Safety Week. The children will participate in a variety of lessons and activities. It will really help if you could review Fire-Drill procedures with your child: We stop what we are doing and line up silently to leave the building through the closest door. We do not run! If we are in another school location, we leave through the closest exit and meet on the big yard at the fence, we are empty handed and we remain quiet so that we can hear all instructions. We do not cover our ears as we need to hear all instructions.

Jolly Phonics... "Ii"... Inky the Mouse has crept into the house and his tail has tipped over the ink. He scratches his whiskers and says, "i-i-i-i" - short 'i' sound as in ink, in, igloo. Last week our friend Kyle brought in an awesome list of "Tt" words. If anyone can think of any "Ii" words at home this week, bring them in and we will add them to our class list.

Food Drive... St. James the Greater School collected over 1300 food items for our local food bank last week! Thank you so much for all of your generous donations. We have a very caring school community here at St. James!

Library Books are now due on Wednesdays please. This gives us time to organize and return the books and prepare for the next ones to go home (Last Friday we had a busy day and the "blue" group was not able visit the library during our time. The "blue" group was able to go on Tuesday. These students can bring their books back by Thursday this week).

October Kindergarten Newsletter is now on our website; sorry for the delay!

Have a great week everyone!
